

Marc's Village Walk

Walking Tour of Greenwich Village, New York City

From Native Americans to the Hippies and Beyond — A Greenwich Village History tour led by a native Villager.

The walk takes approximately two hours and starts at 8th Avenue and 14th Street in Manhattan, New York City, or at a prearranged location. You will be escorted through the Streets of Greenwich Village past early 19th Century Town Houses. Starting at the High Line and ending at Minetta Lane, near Washington Square Park.

Stories of past residents, local history, Native American history, architecture and personal anecdotes enliven this tour. The tour covers four hundred years of the history, culture, and arts of Greenwich Village. From Native Americans, the scandals of the founding fathers of the republic, to the artists, writers and poets of Greenwich Village.

email: info@marcvillagewalk.com

tel: 646-283-4379

web: www.marcvillagewalk.com

Marc Felix is a licensed sight-seeing guide by the NYC Department of Consumer Affairs

I escort small groups of one or more people.

Customize your tour by choosing a start time that is convenient for you.

Reservations are Required

Call or email Marc to book a tour on any day from 8 am to 7 pm.

Meet for the tour at the NW corner of 8th Avenue and 14th Street. Marc Felix will be wearing a hat.

Rates for tours = $30 a person for approximately 2 hours.

Marc in Washington Square
by Sherry Felix, Sept. 2001

Wysteria on West 4th Street
by Sherry Felix, May 2007

Marc Felix, 2008